

The RRC NEBOSH Award in Health & Safety at Work By E-learning / Blended Learning

The NEBOSH Award in Health & Safety at Work

The NEBOSH Award in Health and Safety at Work is a new qualification providing a basic understanding of health and safety principles and practices in the workplace. This qualification provides a perfect introduction to other NEBOSH qualifications including NEBOSH's International General Certificate.

Who should study NEBOSH Award in Health & Safety at Work

This qualification is aimed at those supervisors and team leaders who are interested in learning more about health and safety and have yet to receive any official Health & Safety training before. It will provide a basic understanding of risks and hazards across all businesses.

The typical people who would benefit from this qualification include:

- Staff with supervisory responsibilities;
- Team leaders;
- People who wish to have an introduction to other NEBOSH qualifications;
- People who want a good foundation in health and safety.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for this qualification and there are no barriers to restrict access to any candidate.

What You Will Study

The syllabus itself is divided into 10 units (around 40 hours of study)
